

How Will It End?

Choose a book or story you are reading or listening to now. Based on what has happened in the story so far, write or draw a picture of what you think will happen next. Use a different rectangle for each story you read. When you are finished, color the apples beside the ones you got right!

Detective Time

Before you begin: Parents/Teachers, write questions related to the specific story you are working on with your students. Print as many of the answer sheets as needed; there are three different sets.

Directions: See what you remember from the story! Listen to the question and then answer the question in the matching numbered box. When you are done, color the detectives and their equipment beside the answers you got right!

Question 1:

Question 2:

Question 3:

Question 4:

Question 5:

Question 6:

Detective Time

Question 1

Question 2

Question 3

Detective Time

Question 4

Question 5

Question 6

Detective Time

Question 1

Question 2

Question 3

Detective Time

Question 4

Question 5

Question 6

Detective Time

Question 1

Question 2

Question 3

Detective Time

Question 4

Question 5

Question 6

What's the Main Idea?

What would you say if I asked you to tell me what the story of Goldilocks is about? You might say that it's about a girl who goes for a walk and finds three bears that live in a house. There are many things that happen in the story, but that's the main idea. It's the idea that drives the story. Or what about the story of Cinderella? You could say that it's the story of a girl who isn't treated very nicely at home but gets to go to a ball and fall in love with a handsome prince. There are other things that happen in the story, of course, but that is the main idea. Try it with some of the stories you know. Choose your favorite stories and write or draw the main idea of each.

Name of the story: _____

What's the Main Idea?

Name of the story: _____

What's the Main Idea?

Name of the story: _____

The Five W's

See if you can answer the following five questions about a story you have read.

	Who is the story about?
	What happened in the story?
	Where did the story take place?
	When did the story happen?
	Why do you think the characters acted the way they did?

Copyright © 2016 by Bonnie Rose Hudson

Select graphics used courtesy of EduClips.

All Rights Reserved. This book may not be reproduced or transmitted by any means, including graphic, electronic, or mechanical, without the express written consent of the author except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles and reviews and those uses expressly described in the following Terms of Use. You are welcome to link back to the author's website, <http://writebonnierose.com>, but may not link directly to the PDF file. You may not alter this work, sell or distribute it in any way, host this file on your own website, or upload it to a shared website.

Terms of Use: For use by a family, this unit can be printed and copied as many times as needed. Classroom teachers may reproduce one copy for each student in his or her class. Members of co-ops or workshops may reproduce one copy for up to fifteen children. This material cannot be resold or used in any way for commercial purposes. Please contact the publisher with any questions.