Late one night, your family has a bunch of friends and family members over to visit. Draw a picture of what you do during your visit and write about it below.

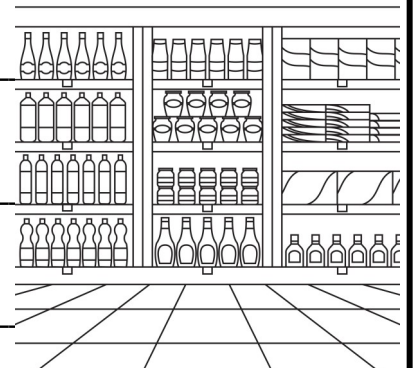

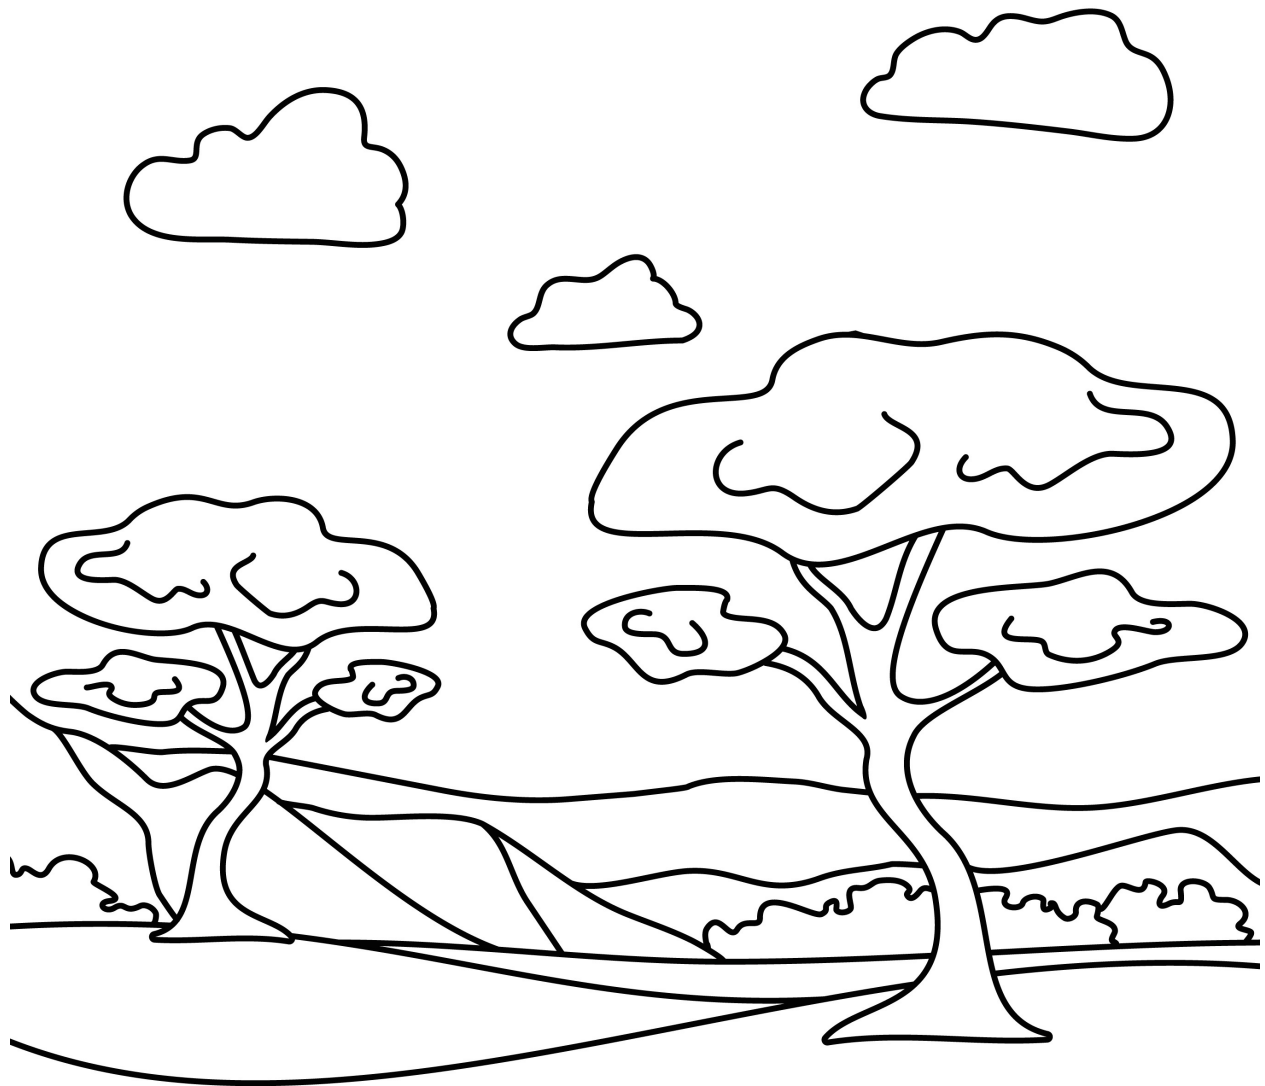

You are in the attic of an old house. What do you find that you never expected to see? Draw what you see and then write about what happens next.

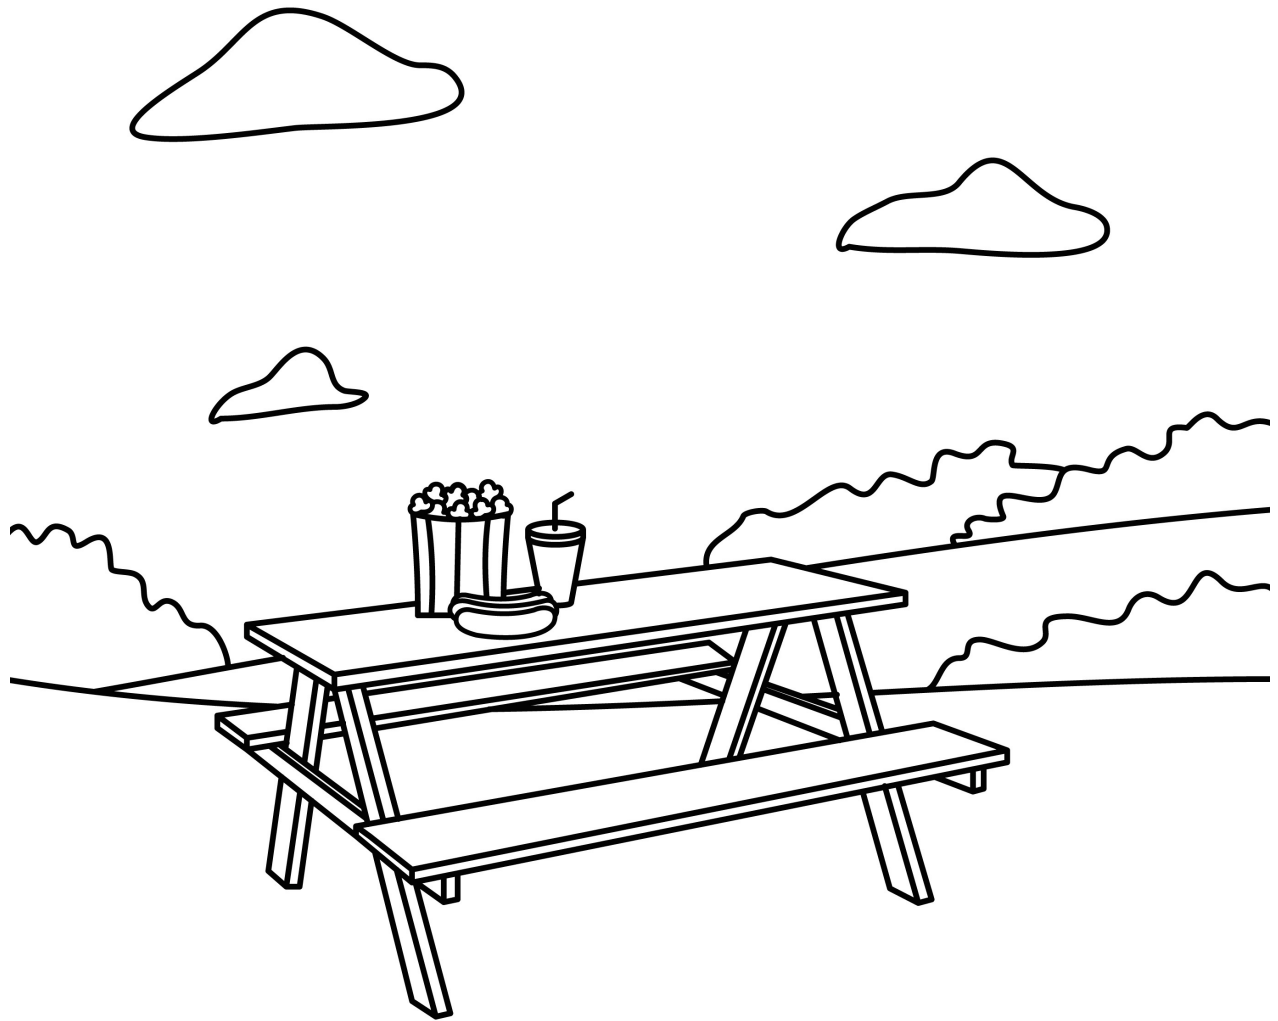

It's grocery store day. Draw a picture of your cart and what you are buying and write about your trip to the store.

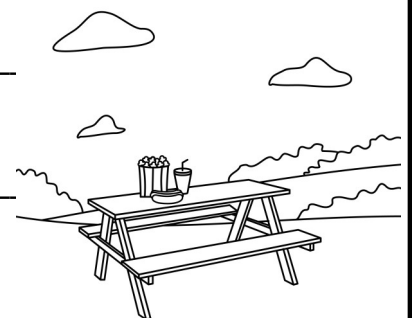

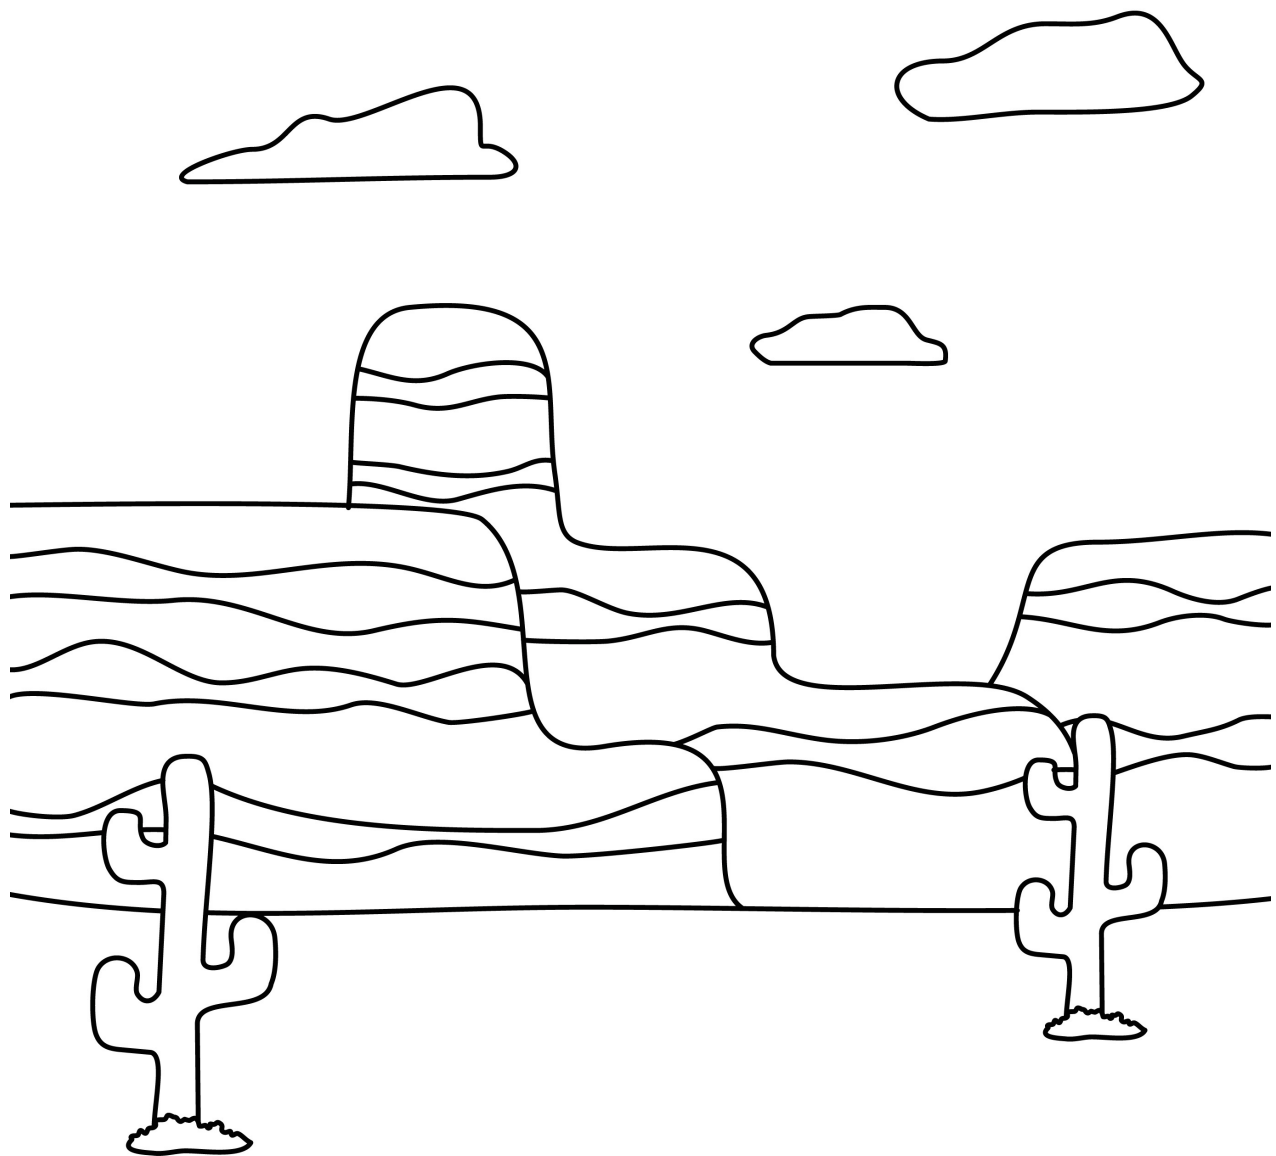

You are exploring the African savanna. Draw the animals you see, adding them to the picture. Write about your adventure.

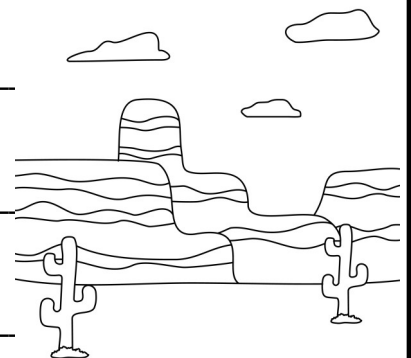

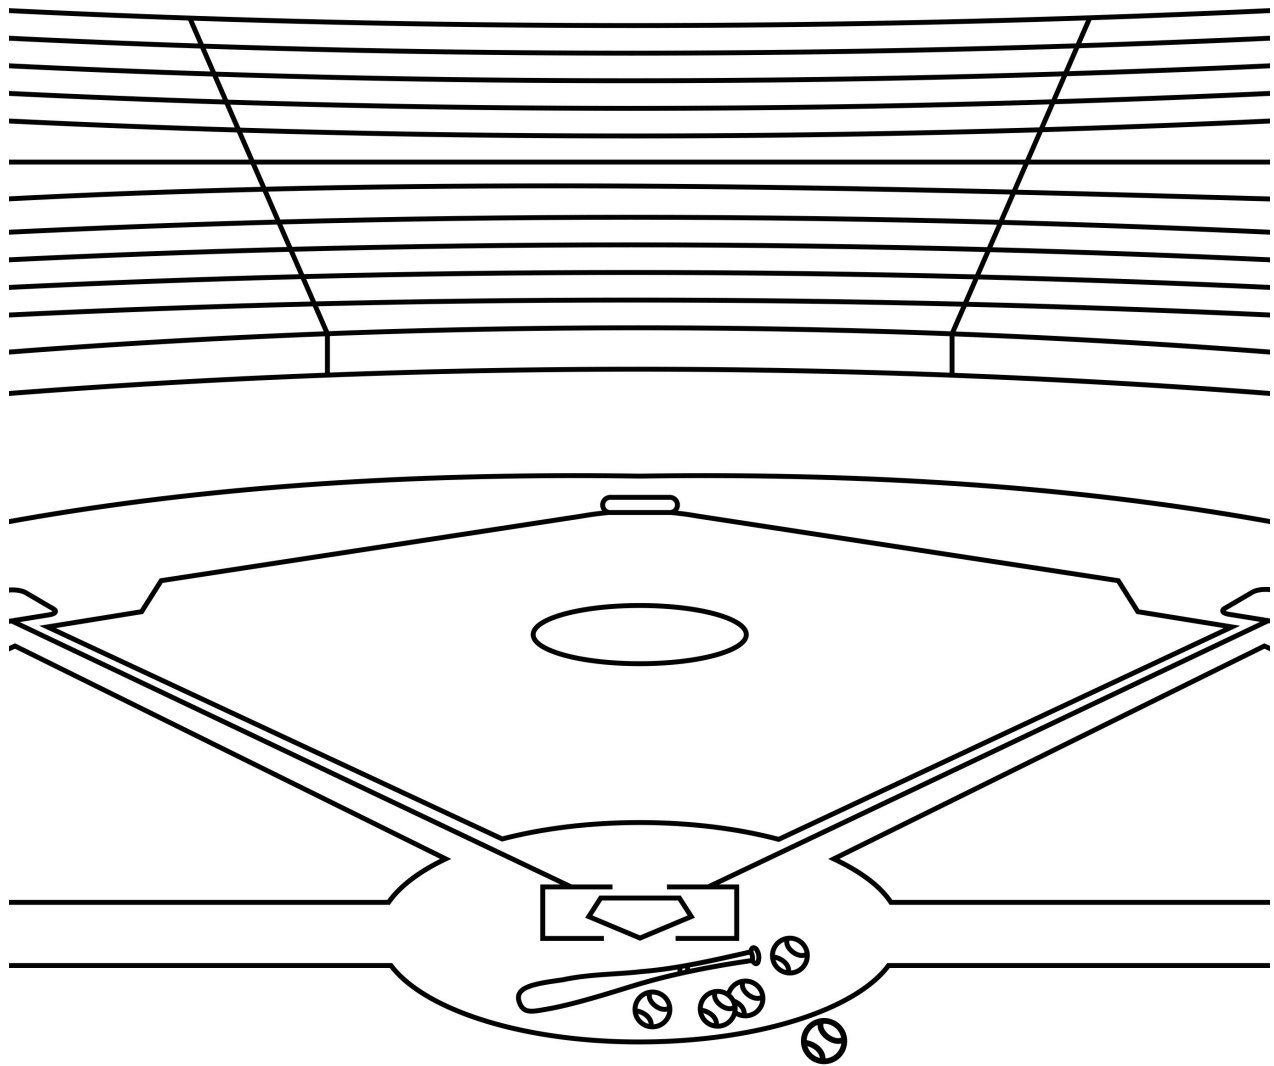

After a day at the fair, you buy some supper and sit down at the picnic table to eat. Draw the fair in the background and you at the table. Write about your day.

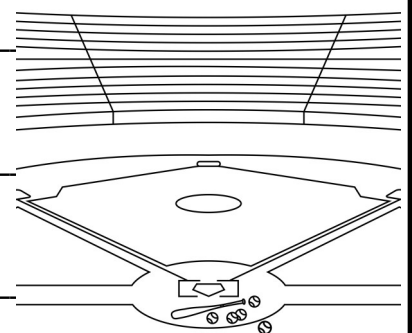

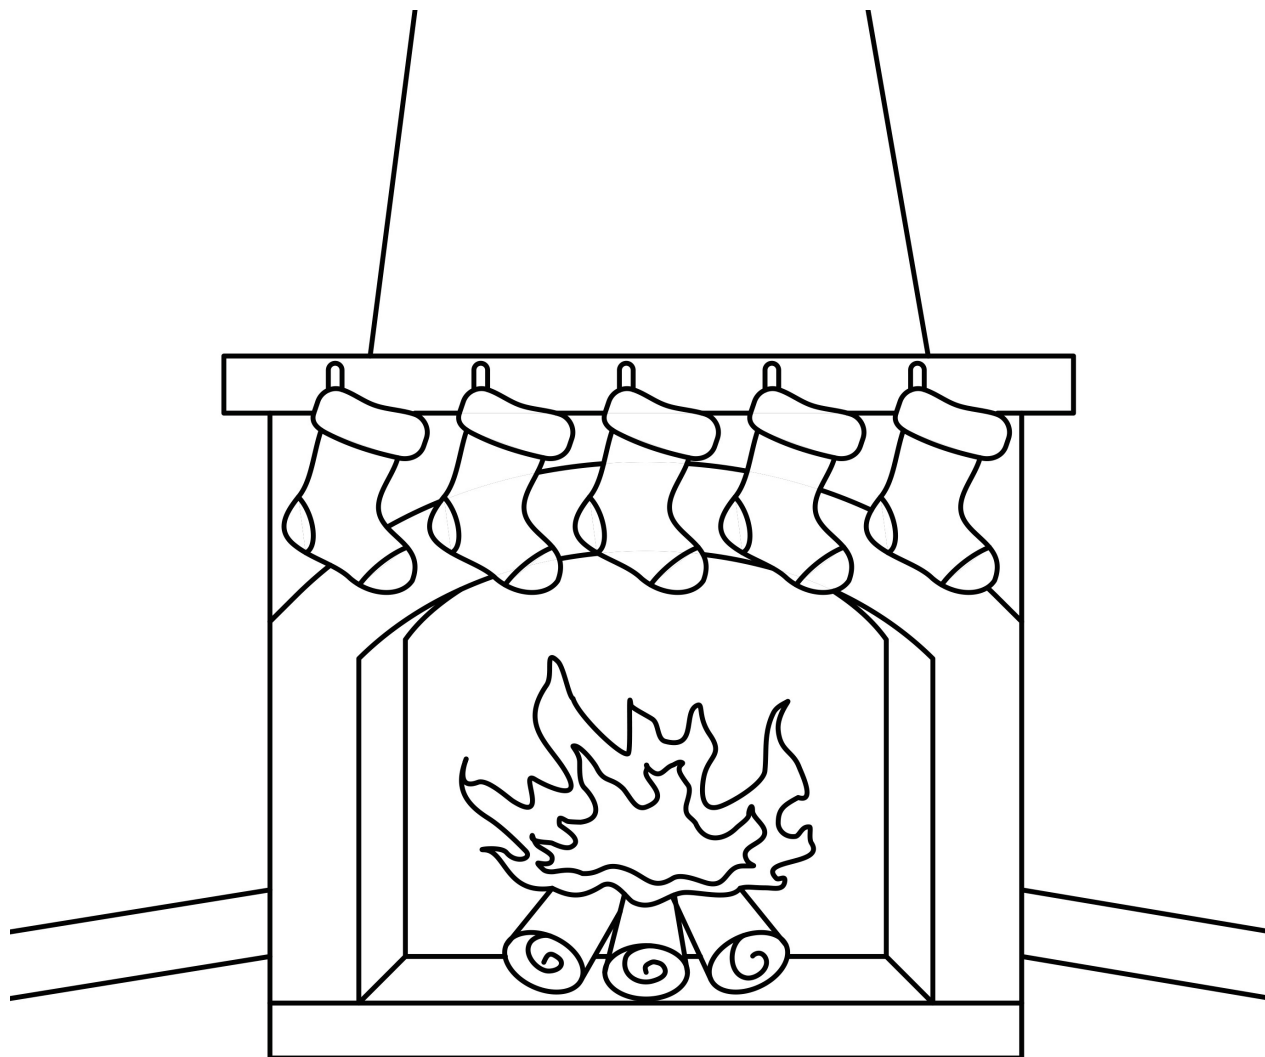

You and your family are on a road trip, but you are lost. You've passed the same landmark three times. Draw you and your family and write about your road trip.

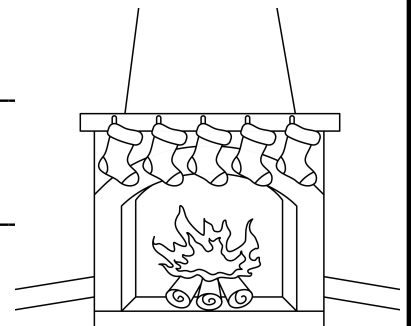

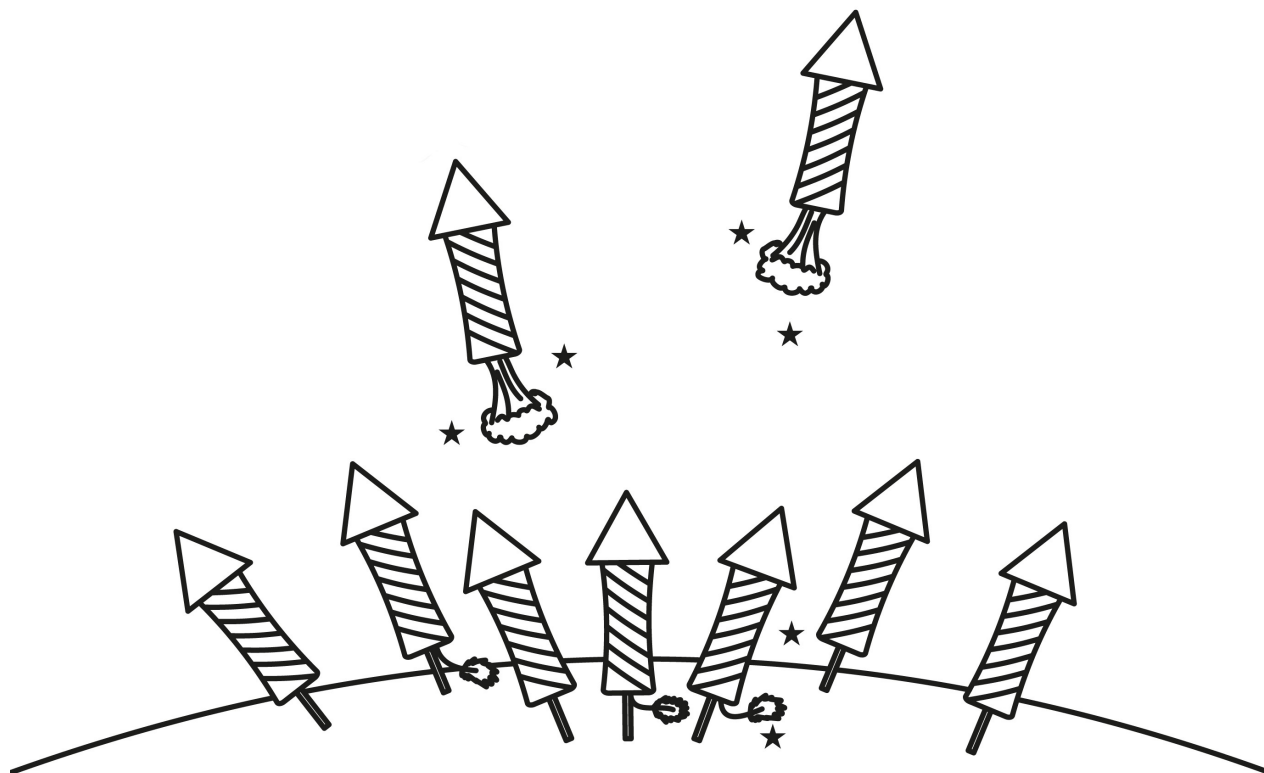

It's the night of the big game. Draw what you see and write about the game and what happens.

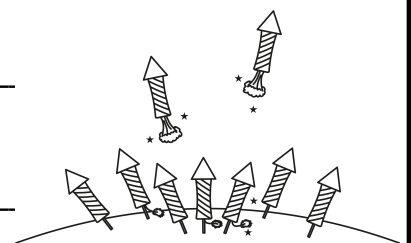

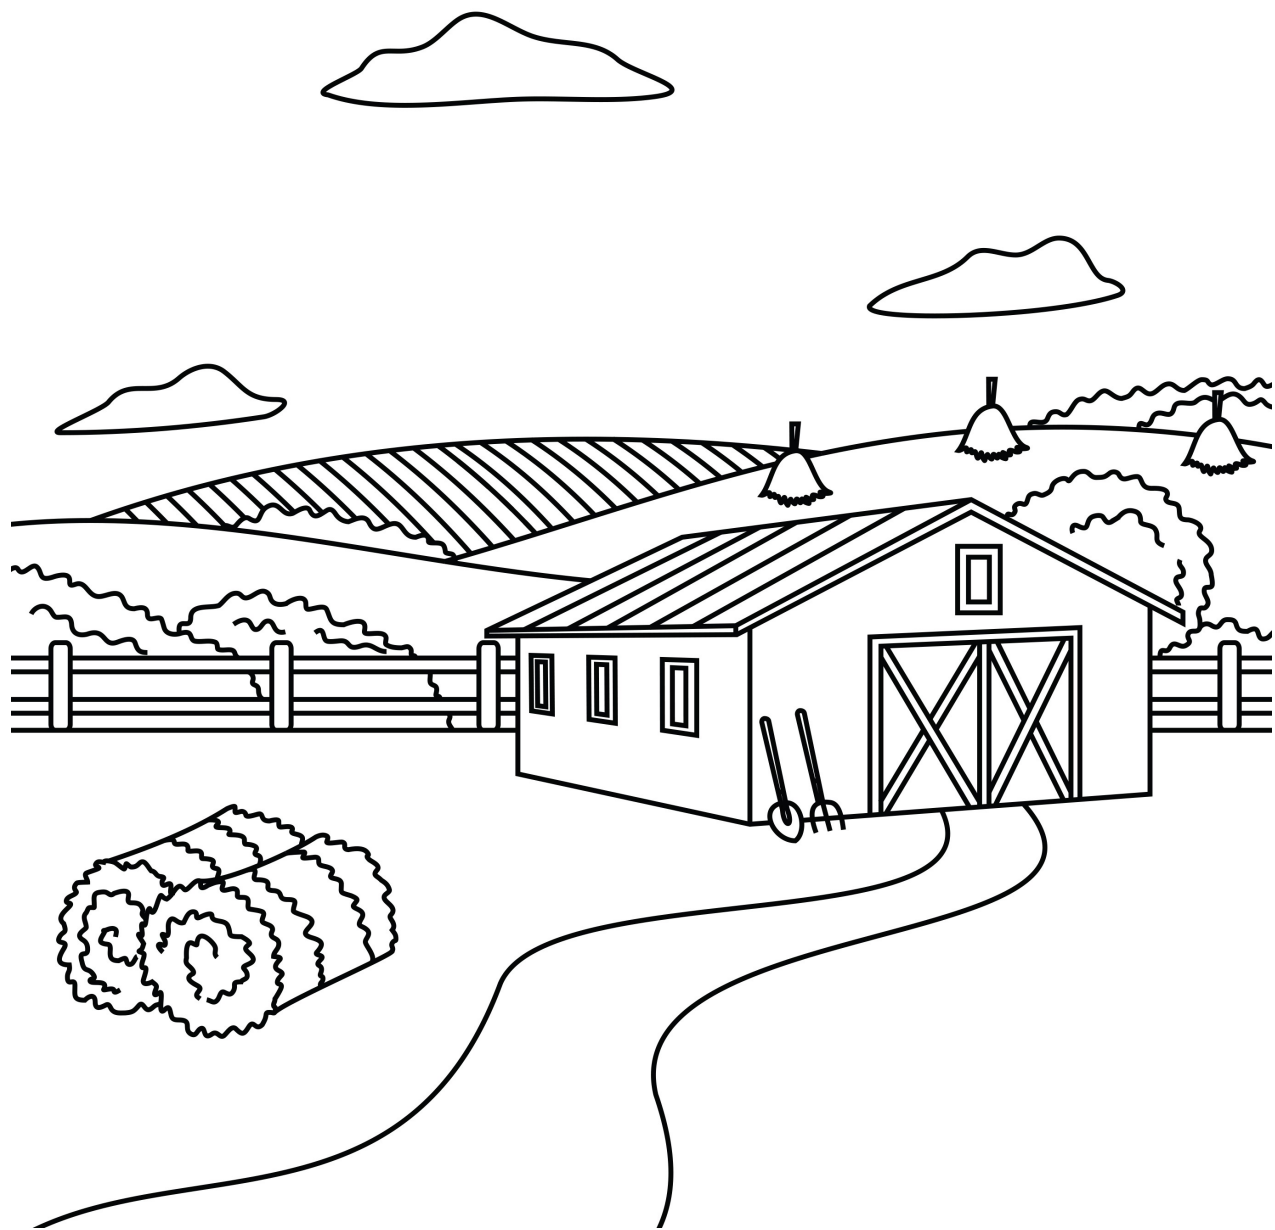

It's Christmas Eve. Draw a picture of your family by the fireplace and write about your special night.

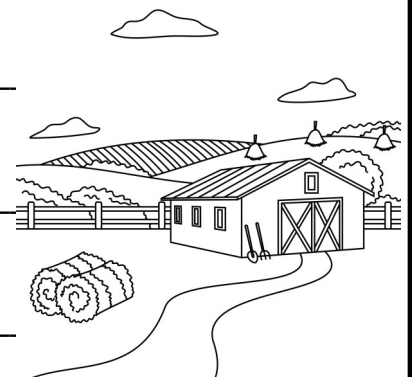

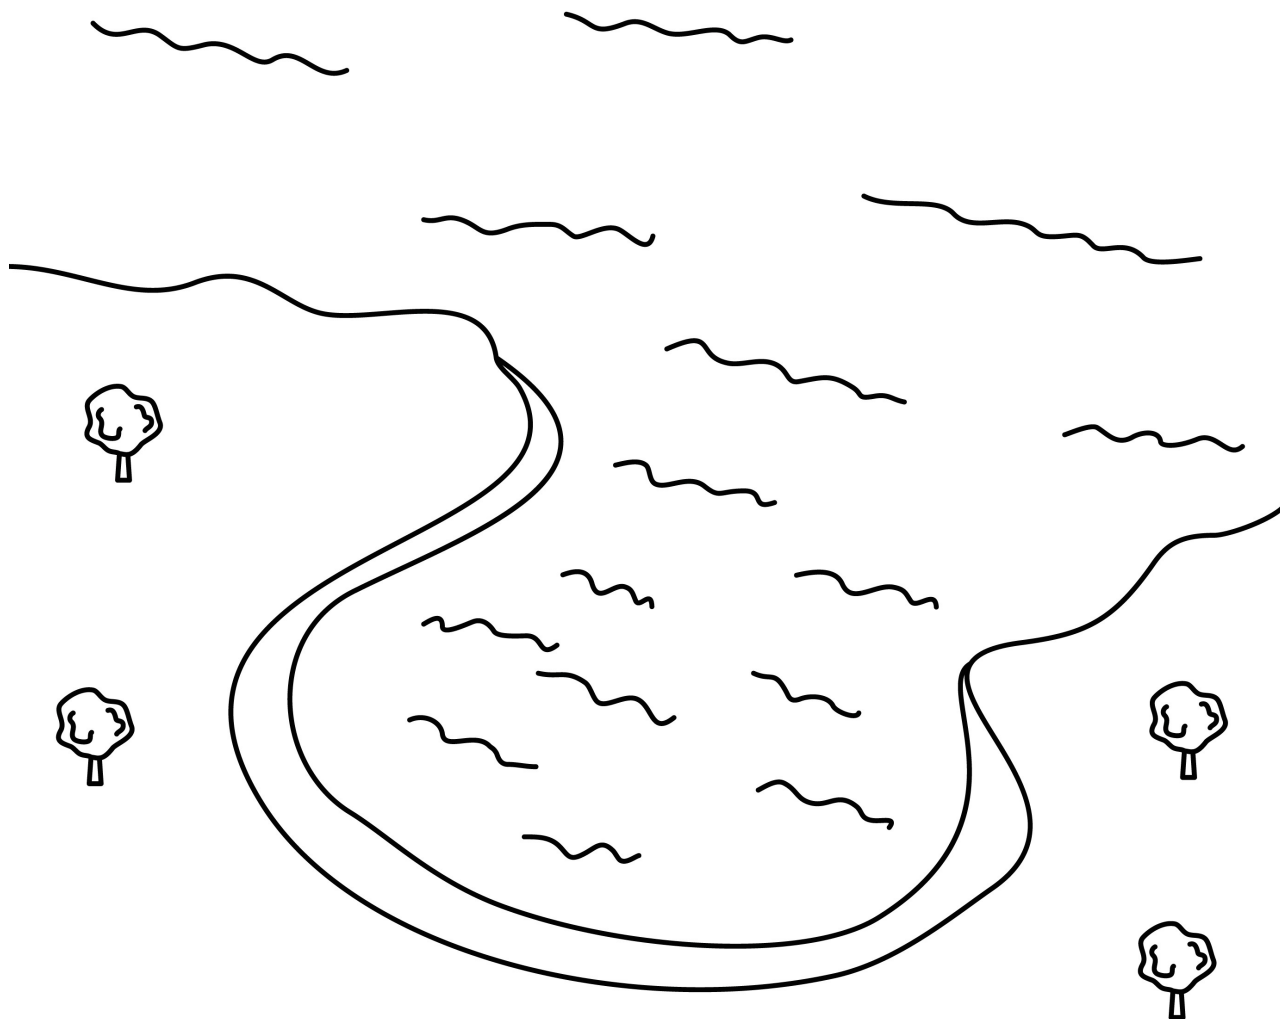

It's the night of the fireworks show. Draw the fireworks in the sky above and write about the excitement.

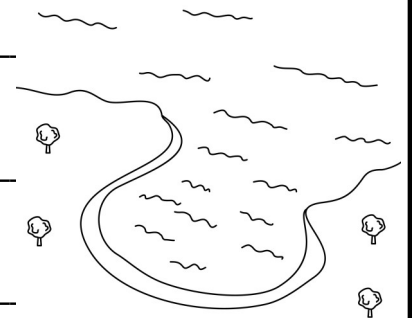

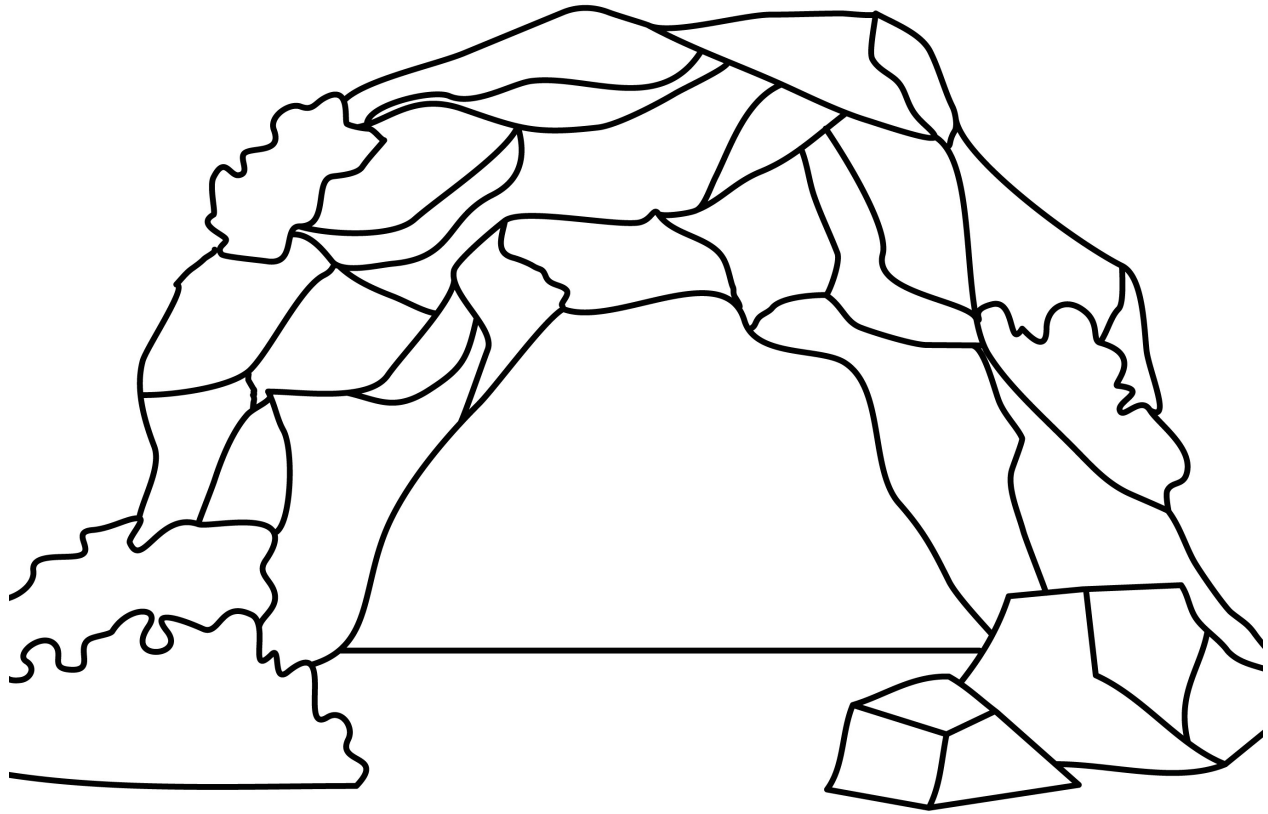

You are visiting your Uncle Ed's farm. Draw some of the things you see there and write about your day.

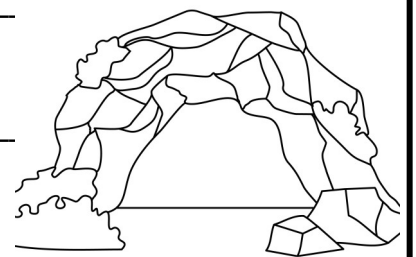

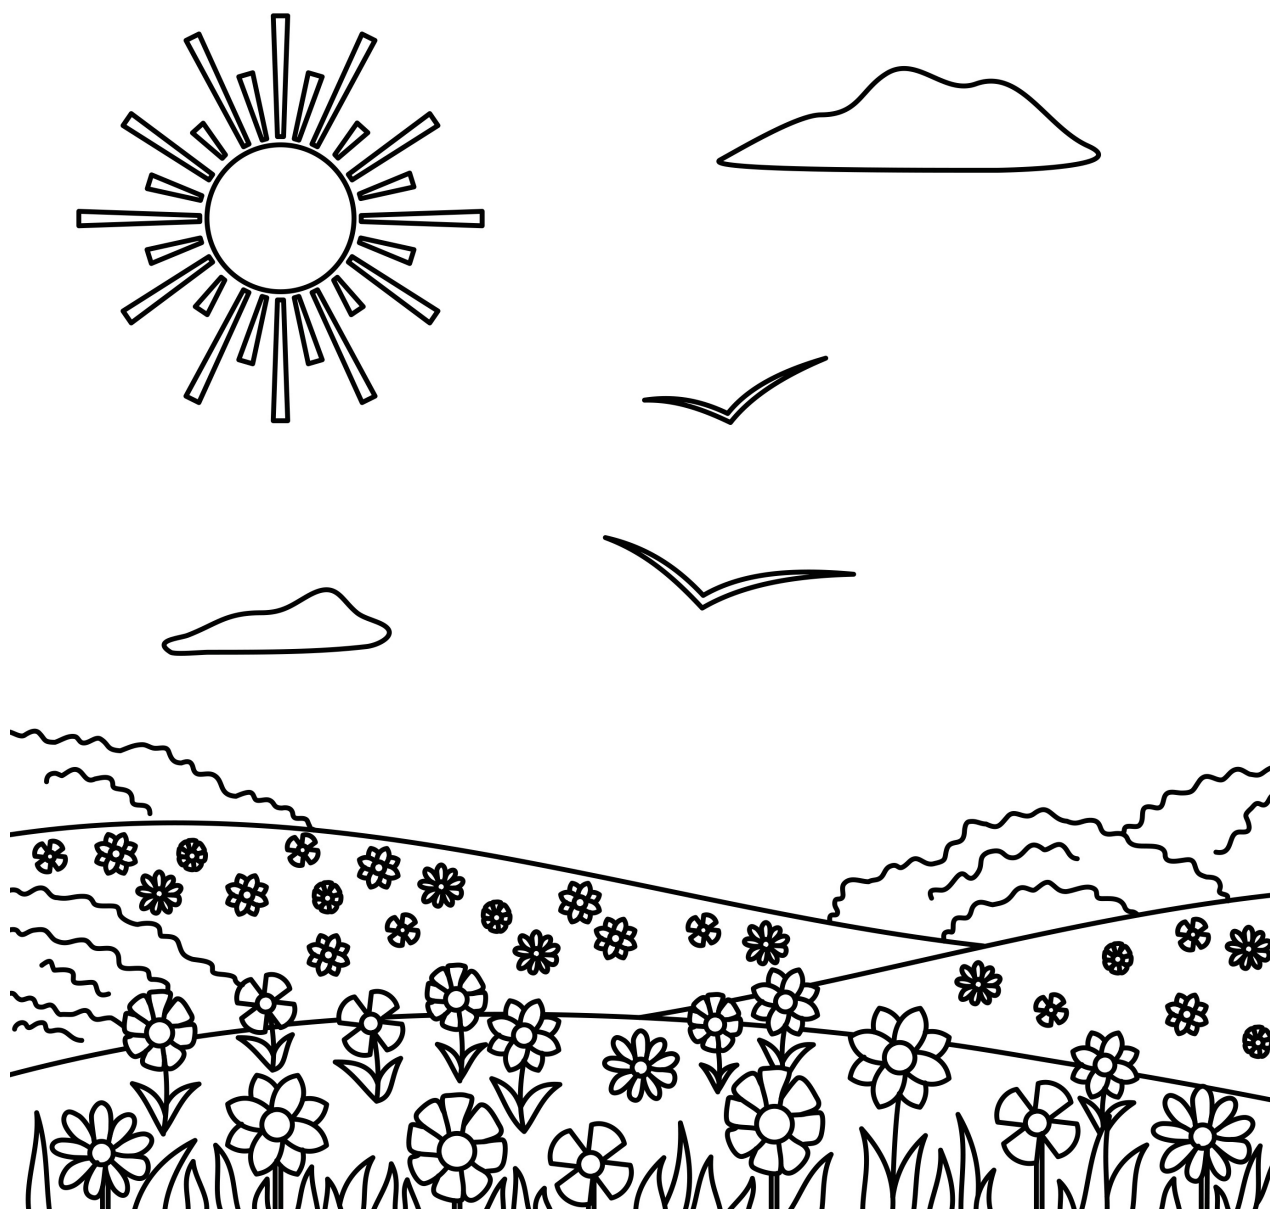

You are an explorer who just found a hidden bay on an undiscovered island. Draw what you find and write about your adventure.

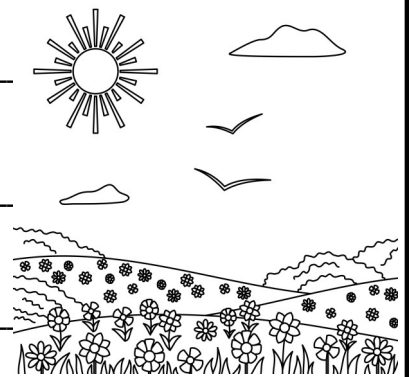

While exploring deep in the woods, you stumble upon a cave. Draw what you discover, and write about what happens next.

It is the perfect summer day. Draw what you are doing and write about how you would spend your perfect day.
