

Dove

We see the dove used often in the Bible. We see it in the Old Testament when Noah sent a dove to discover if the waters had dried up enough after the Flood so they could leave the ark.

Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground; But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark; And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more. Genesis 8:8-12

One of the times we see the dove in the New Testament is when Jesus was baptized.

And Jesus, when He was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon Him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Matthew 3:16-17.

Tower of Babel

After Noah and his family left the ark, they settled towns and built communities. In one city, the people decided they wanted to be known for a great tower they intended to build.

And they said, "Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. And the Lord said, "Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."

So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth. Genesis 11:4-9

Ladder

When Jacob was traveling to visit family as he was told to by his father Isaac, he stopped to sleep. While he slept, God gave him a special dream. God met with Jacob and promised to be with him and keep His promises to Jacob and his family.

And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And, behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, "I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of." Genesis 28:12-15

Commandments

God told Moses to go up on Mount Sinai. There, God met with Moses and gave him laws for the people to follow, including the Ten Commandments. The commandments He gave the people are:

"I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them . . . Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work . . . For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house . . . nor any thing that is thy neighbour's."
Exodus 20:2-5, 7-17

The Ark of the Covenant

The Ark of the Covenant was to house the tablets of stone upon which God had written the Law. The mercy seat of the Ark was where God met with the people.

"And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee. And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof. And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat. And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof. And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be. And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee. And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel." Temple

King David wanted to build a house for God among the Israelites, but God told him that his son would build the house. That house was the Temple in Jerusalem.

Then spake Solomon . . . And he said, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which spake with His mouth unto David my father, and hath with His hand fulfilled it, saying, 'Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my Name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.'

And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel. And the Lord said unto David my father, 'Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my Name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart. Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my Name.'

And the Lord hath performed His word that He spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built an house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel." I Kings 8:12, 15-20

Prince of Peace

Throughout the Old Testament, God showed us a pattern. If we were to meet God, He had to come down to us. We couldn't get to Him. He came down to Babel, down to Mt. Sinai to meet with Moses, down to meet with the people at the mercy seat of the Ark of the Covenant, and down to the Temple. But He also promised that one day, He would come down in the most special way, and Isaiah is one of the prophets He chose to tell us about His plan.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. Isaiah 9:6-7

Savior

When Jesus came, God came down to us in the most special way. He took on a human body so He could live with us, show us what God is like, die to save us, and rise to live again. When He was born in Bethlehem, the angel of the Lord appeared to shepherds who were in the field watching their sheep that night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, "Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us." And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. Luke 2:9-16

Ship

After feeding the 5,000 with just five barley loaves and two small fish, Jesus knew that the people wanted to make Him a king. He went off into a mountain to be alone. His disciples got into a boat and started for Capernaum.

And when even was now come, His disciples went down unto the sea, And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

But He saith unto them, "It is I; be not afraid."

Then they willingly received Him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. John 6:16-21

Heaven

Jesus spoke much about His home in Heaven and the home He was making there for those who trusted in Him. All through the Bible, God had come down to us. Now He had shown us how He was going to take us up to be with Him, forever.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."

And He that sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said unto me, "Write: for these words are true and faithful." Revelation 21:3-5

Have you believed that Jesus is who He says He is, the Son of God—the Savior? Have you asked Him to forgive you and help you live for Him? If not, why not do that right now?
