

Sermon on the Mount

Excerpt

Matthew 5:3-16, 38-48

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. . . .

Ye have heard that it hath been said, "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth":

But I say unto you, That ye resist
not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

And if any man will sue thee at
the law, and take away thy coat,
let him have thy cloak also.

And whosoever shall compel thee
to go a mile, go with him twain.

Give to him that asketh thee,
and from him that would borrow
of thee turn not thou away.

Ye have heard that it hath been
said, "Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy."

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse
you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

That ye may be the children of
your Father which is in heaven:
for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

For if ye love them which love
you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

And if ye salute your brethren
only, what do ye more than others? do not even the
publicans so?
Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.
