

Making Pancakes

Do you like to eat pancakes? Have you ever watched someone make pancakes?

First, the pancake ingredients need to be mixed together to make a batter.

Next, an adult has to pour the batter onto the griddle to cook. The griddle will be hot.

As the pancakes cook, an adult has to watch them. When they see the pancakes are ready, they flip them over so the pancakes cook on the other side.

Soon, they will be finished cooking.

Now it's time to get out the syrup and butter to put on them.

Once they are on your plate, it's time to add the syrup and butter and enjoy!

Some of the steps to making pancakes are shown on page 3, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Getting Cereal Ready to Eat

Do you like to eat cereal? Do you know what needs done to get it ready to eat?

First, someone needs to get out a bowl to put the cereal in and a spoon to use to eat the cereal.

Next, they need to get out a box of cereal.

The cereal gets poured out of the box.

Fill the bowl with just the right amount of cereal.

Now it is time to take the milk out of the refrigerator.

After the milk is poured on the cereal, it is ready to enjoy!

Some of the steps to getting cereal ready to eat are shown on page 3, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Making Pancakes

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to making pancakes.

Getting Cereal Ready to Eat

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to getting cereal ready to eat.

Making and Eating Cookies

Do you like to eat cookies? Have you ever watched someone bake cookies?

First, the cookie dough needs to be mixed up.

Next, someone puts the cookies on a cookie sheet to bake them.

After they are baked, they look so yummy!

As soon as they cool, it is time to take a bite.

And then another bite.

And another bite. Oh, it is almost all gone!

Some of the steps to making and eating cookies are shown on page 6, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Making and Drinking a Milkshake

Do you like milkshakes? What is your favorite flavor? Strawberry is really good. Let's talk about some of the steps to make a strawberry milkshake.

First, someone has to get all of the things ready you need to make the milkshake.

Next, an adult has to put the ingredients into a blender.

After they have everything blended together, they can pour it into a glass. They might even add whipped cream and a cherry on top.

Now, it is time to enjoy the milkshake. Sometimes people eat the cherry first and then start to drink the milkshake. Just don't drink it too fast because it is really cold!

You have to keep drinking the milkshake so you can finish it before it gets warm and starts to melt.

After you make sure to get every drop, you need to wash the glass and clean up any mess!

Some of the steps to making and drinking a milkshake are shown on page 6, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Making and Eating Cookies

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to making and eating cookies.

Making and Drinking a Milkshake

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to making and drinking a milkshake.

Getting Milk to Drink

Do you know how good milk is for you? Do you know where milk comes from? There are many different places to get milk, but one is from a cow on a dairy farm.

First, large dairy farms have special machines that milk all the cows.

Next, farmers put the milk into a tank on a truck to take to the dairy.

At the dairy, the milk is made safe to drink and put into bottles or cartons.

The milk is loaded into special trucks to keep it cold and taken to stores to sell.

When someone goes shopping, they buy the milk to take home.

Now you can finally enjoy the taste of good, cold milk!

Some of the steps to getting milk to drink are shown on page 9, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Making Caramel Apples

Do you like caramel apples? Have you ever watched someone make caramel apples?

First, they get some nice, fresh apples and a big bag of caramels.

Then they get a tray out to set the caramel apples on while they cool.

An adult puts the caramels in a pan, puts it on the stove, and heats the caramels.

In a little while, the pan will be full of melted caramel.

An adult takes a special, clean stick and places it in the apple. Then they dip the apple into the hot, melted caramel. They let the extra caramel drip back into the pan so it isn't wasted.

Then an adult sets the apple that has been dipped in caramel on the tray so it can cool. Once it is cool enough to eat, people can enjoy a sweet treat!

Some of the steps to making caramel apples are shown on page 9, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Getting Milk to Drink

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to getting milk to drink.

Making Caramel Apples

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to making caramel apples.

Making Cinnamon Rolls

Do you like cinnamon rolls? Have you ever watched someone make cinnamon rolls?

After the dough is made, someone rolls it out with a rolling pin.

Next, they spread butter on the dough and top it with sugar and cinnamon.

Now they roll the dough into the shape of a log.

Next, an adult cuts the rolled-up dough into slices and puts them in a pan to raise.

After the cinnamon rolls have time to raise, an adult puts them in the oven to bake.

Sometimes, people add icing and then put them on a plate so they are ready to eat.

Some of the steps to making cinnamon rolls are shown on page 12, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Making Cornbread

Do you like cornbread? Have you ever watched someone make cornbread?

First, someone puts all of the ingredients in a bowl.

Next, they mix the ingredients together.

Then someone pours the batter into a pan.

They spread the batter out nice and even in the pan.

An adult puts the cornbread in the oven and bakes it until it is just right. Now it looks warm and flaky.

After someone cuts the cornbread into pieces and places them on a plate, it is ready to eat.

Some of the steps to making cornbread are shown on page 12, but they are all mixed up. Cut them out and paste them in the boxes below in the correct order.

Making Cinnamon Rolls

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to making cinnamon rolls.

Making Cornbread

Use these boxes to fill in the steps to making cornbread.

Answer Key

Making Pancakes

Getting Cereal Ready to Eat

Making and Eating Cookies

Making and Drinking a Milkshake

Getting Milk to Drink

Making Caramel Apples

Making Cinnamon Rolls

Making Cornbread

Please note: this unit is intended only as a fun set of worksheets and not as a resource to be used in the kitchen. Children should never be left unsupervised to cook or work in the kitchen, and adults must always be aware of potential allergies.

Copyright © 2021 by WriteBonnieRose, LLC

Select graphics used courtesy of ChalkStar, I 365 Art, and Zip-a-Dee-Doo-Dah Designs.

Select graphics used courtesy of and licensed by Dancing Crayon Designs © www.DancingCrayon.com.

All Rights Reserved. This book may not be reproduced or transmitted by any means, including graphic, electronic, or mechanical, without the express written consent of the author except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles and reviews and those uses expressly described in the following Terms of Use. You are welcome to link back to the author's website, <http://writebonnierose.com>, but may not link directly to the PDF file. You may not alter this work, sell or distribute it in any way, host this file on your own website, or upload it to a shared website.

Terms of Use: For use by a family, this unit can be printed and copied as many times as needed. Classroom teachers may reproduce one copy for each student in his or her class. Members of co-ops or workshops may reproduce one copy for up to fifteen children. This material cannot be resold or used in any way for commercial purposes. Please contact the publisher with any questions.