

Bears Around the World

A Types of Bears Crossword Puzzle

Across:

1. Black-and-white bear that munches bamboo.
2. This giant brown bear lives only on one island in Alaska.
4. This North American bear is an excellent tree climber.
5. This bear slurps up termites and ants with a long, sticky tongue.
6. This bear has a white "moon" or crescent shape on its chest.
7. Subspecies of brown bear known for its shoulder hump.

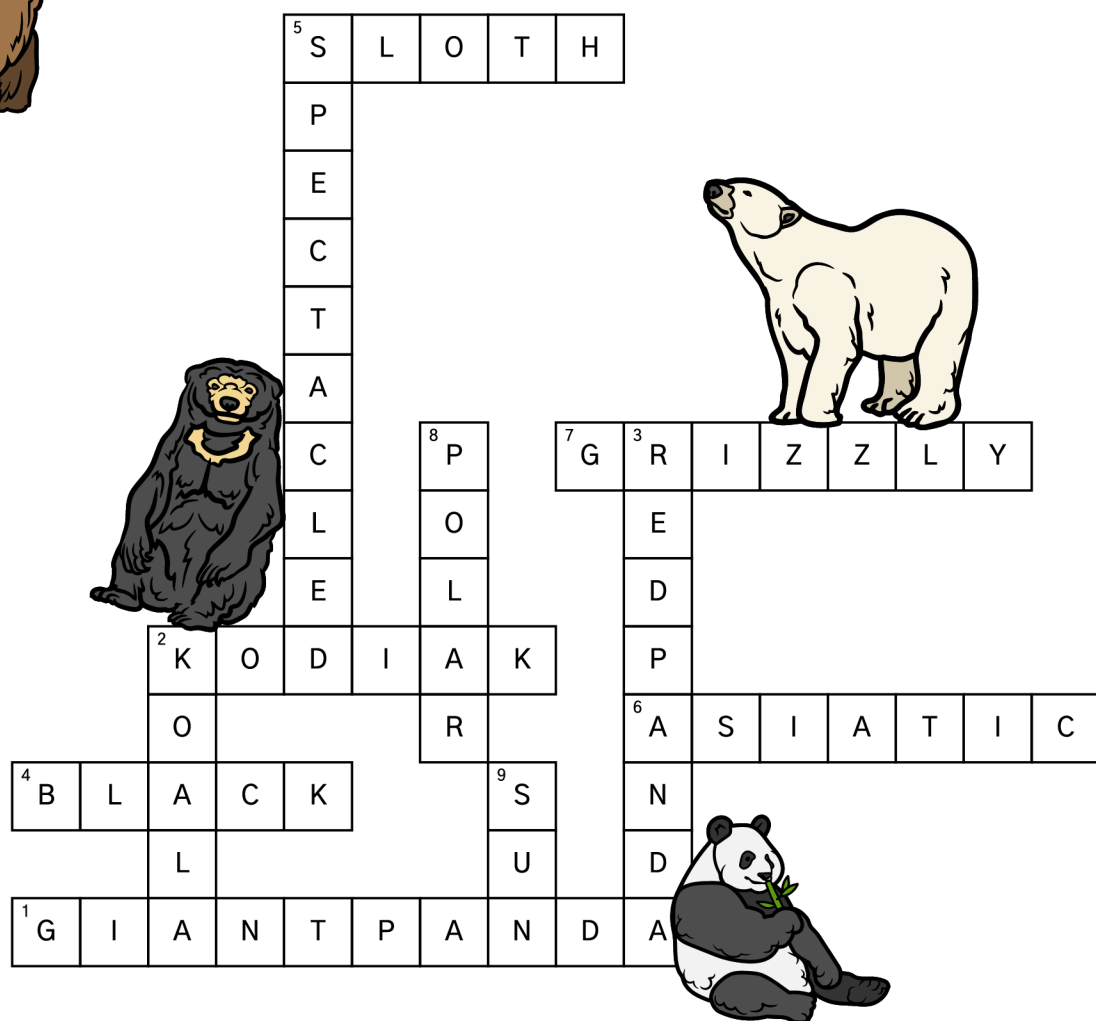

Down:

2. Called a "bear," but actually a marsupial from Australia.
3. A small bamboo-eater more closely related to raccoons than bears.
5. Bear that builds nests in trees and looks like it's wearing glasses.
8. Arctic swimmer that can smell seals from far away.
9. Smallest bear in the world, nicknamed the "honey bear."

Bears Around the World

Answer Key

Across:

1. Black-and-white bear that munches bamboo.
2. This giant brown bear lives only on one island in Alaska.
4. This North American bear is an excellent tree climber.
5. This bear slurps up termites and ants with a long, sticky tongue.
6. This bear has a white "moon" or crescent shape on its chest.
7. Subspecies of brown bear known for its shoulder hump.

Down:

2. Called a "bear," but actually a marsupial from Australia.
3. A small bamboo-eater more closely related to raccoons than bears.
5. Bear that builds nests in trees and looks like it's wearing glasses
8. Arctic swimmer that can smell seals from far away.
9. Smallest bear in the world, nicknamed the "honey bear."